

Stephen Attard

Stephen Attard is a senior partner at GANADO Advocates and heads the firm's Corporate Finance and Tax department.

Over the past 32 years, he has primarily advised international clients of GANADO on corporate and tax matters in a wide range of cross-border transactions. Stephen has also contributed to the drafting of amendments to Malta's Companies Act and tax legislation, including amendments to capital maintenance rules, tax rules applicable to companies, yacht and aircraft finance leases, securitisation vehicles, trusts, and foundations. He has represented IFSP at various discussions with the Malta Business Registry over the years.

Stephen is a Council member of the IFSP, and a part-time lecturer and examiner at the University of Malta.
