

Alison Cortis

Alison Cortis holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Hons) in Banking and Finance from the University of Malta and later obtained the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) Diploma in International Trust Management. She started her professional career over twenty years ago in the private sector with an international company specialising in the administration and management of trusts. Alison also worked with a local investment firm specialising in brokerage. Alison is currently the Deputy Head of the Authorisation Team within the Trustees and Company Service Providers Function at the Malta Financial Services Authority. She joined the Authority in 2010 and has since been mainly involved in the supervision of Trustees and Company Service Providers. Alison is involved in the amendments to the regulatory framework applicable to Trustees and Company Service Providers. She also had a leading role in the implementation of the Company Service Providers Reform.