

George Kakouras

George Kakouras is the Managing Director behind Apcopay, an innovative Payment Orchestration Platform under the umbrella of Synthesis. With a proven track record dating back to 2004, Apcopay has empowered over 15,000 businesses worldwide, offering a holistic payment solution tailored to each enterprise's needs. Through seamless integration with a multitude of payment providers, Apcopay facilitates diverse payment options across 100+ countries, processing over €1 billion annually and 10 million transactions monthly.

Beyond his role at Apcopay, George leads as Managing Director of Hili Properties plc, a publicly listed entity within Hili Ventures, steering a €230 million portfolio of strategic commercial real estate across Europe.

An engineer at heart, George's passion lies at the intersection of people, real estate, and the transformative potential of high-tech digital innovations. He envisions a future where technology enriches lives and fosters a more interconnected world. Holding a BSc and an MEng in Electrical and Computer Engineering, coupled with an MBA in Engineering Economics Systems, George combines technical expertise with strategic vision to drive meaningful change in both the digital and physical realms.
