

Jerome Caruana Cilia

The Shadow Minister for the Economy and Enterprise, Jerome Caruana Cilia, was elected to Parliament in March 2022. He is a member of the Economic and Financial Affairs Committee.

Caruana Cilia is an experienced financial services professional. Formerly at an international bank in Malta, Caruana Cilia is now responsible for Risk Management at a leading Fintech company. He holds a Masters in Politics and the European Union degree, where he studied Political Economy and also holds a Master of Business Administration where he obtained a distinction. He also holds a Certificate in Sustainability for Finance and a Certificate in FinTech for Finance and Business Leaders. Caruana Cilia is a member of the Malta Institute of Management and a member of the Institute of Leadership, in the United Kingdom. He is also a lecturer in the field of management and finance, particularly on Anti-Money Laundering regulations, Supervision and Corporate Governance.

Caruana Cilia has actively participated in various conferences, both locally and abroad, most recently in the Inter-parliamentary Conference on Stability, Economic Coordination and Governance in the EU.