

Nick Calamatta

Nick Calamatta is the Co-CEO of the Calamatta Cuschieri Moneybaseplc, a Malta based Fintech and financial services group, and his day-to-day role is being part of the management team where he focuses on group strategy, and business development. Mr. Calamatta joined Calamatta Cuschieri a subsidiary of the group in 2005. For the first 9 years of his career he served initially as an investment advisor and then leading the Advisory function of the company. He later was involved in the setting up of the Capital Markets division where he assisted with the launch of several bond issues in Malta. He has a passion for strategic management and besides being a director of the main board and various subsidiaries of the Group also sits on various Investment committees and boards of third-party hedge funds. He is passionate about economics, current affairs, and fine wine. In 2015 he was awarded the Vigneron d'Honneur de la Jurade de St Emilion and holds a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Financial Services from the University of Bournemouth (UK).