

Wayne Pisani

Wayne Pisani heads the tax, regulatory, and compliance practice at Grant Thornton. He advises an extensive client base ranging from private clients, including family offices and high-net-worth individuals, to NASDAQ-listed companies, across various industry sectors on cross-border regulatory, compliance, and tax planning engagements.

He is the vice-president of the Institute of Financial Services Practitioners, having been the president of the Institute and a member of the board of governors of FinanceMalta between 2018 and 2021. He presently chairs the Financial Services Regulated Business Committee of the Institute of Financial Services Practitioners. Wayne is a member of the steering committee of the Malta Financial Services Advisory Council, set up by the Minister for Finance and Employment and tasked with implementing a ten-year strategic plan for the financial services industry.

Wayne is a published author, an experienced digital finance specialist, and a lecturer at the University of Malta. He actively explores digitalization opportunities for a collaborative economy that would transition finance as an enabler for a more sustainable way of living.